

Booklist Review

Books For Youth - Fiction – Fantasy

Fractured.

Fine, Sarah (author).

Oct. 2013. 368p. Amazon/Skyscape, hardcover, $17.99 (9781477817292);

Amazon/Skyscape, e-book, $7.99 (9781477817292). Grades 8-11.

REVIEW. First published October 28, 2013 (Booklist Online).

High stakes and heart-pounding action continue in this satisfying sequel to Sanctum (2012). Tough, determined Lela Santos, now returned to earth, is charged with the mission of eliminating soul-stealing Mazikin who seeped out of the dark crevices of the afterlife. In a reversal of roles, Lela is named captain, with Malachi as her lieutenant. When the Mazikin threaten friends, family, and loved ones, Lela's emotions, loyalty, and leadership are tested at every turn. The on-target narrative deftly balances her street-sharpened edginess with her blossoming self-respect while she embraces a newfound acceptance by her classmates, as well as an awakening sexuality. — Jeanne Fredriksen

Booklist Editors Recommend

Titles similar to Fractured

- Speak
- The Night Tourist